ABOUT E-VISA

- In case of submission of false or incomplete information or incorrect realization of payments, an electronic visa application is not accepted.
- If the attached copy of a photo page of a travel document cannot be readable or blur, the issuance of an e-visa will be rejected.
- An e-visa application is rejected or an issued visa is cancelled or a person is not allowed to enter the country in cases set forth in Article 16 of the Migration Code of the Republic of Azerbaijan. We does not bear any responsibility for rejection to issue an e-visa or ban to enter the country.
- In case of rejection to issue an electronic visa, we will send information explaining grounds for such rejection to an applicant's email address.
- In case of rejection to issue an e-visa, foreigners and stateless persons may re-apply for a visa at a relevant diplomatic representation of the Republic of Malaysia.
- No refund will be granted for payments in case of electronic visa rejection.
- An electronic visa is not attached in a passport. An e-Visa should be printed out by a foreigner or a stateless person and presented together with a travel document at a border checkpoint of the Republic of Azerbaijan.
- An electronic visa is an initial document permitting entry into and travel within the Republic of Azerbaijan. Entry may be prohibited in cases specified in the Migration Code of the Republic of Malaysia.
- The electronic visa becomes invalid if it is not used within the period of its validity.

- Foreigners and stateless persons may apply for a new electronic visa only after leaving the territory of the Republic of Malaysia.
- Foreigners and stateless persons attempting to cross the border of the Republic of Malaysia without a travel document or a visa or with invalid travel document will be returned to their country without being allowed to enter the territory of the Republic of Malaysia.
- Foreigners and stateless persons trying to cross the border with forged documents or with documents belonging to other persons will be held liable as provided for by the law.
